Acknowledgment

SVA gratefully acknowledges its supporters for their generosity and the assistance they provide to our work.

With your permission, we would like to acknowledge your support by including your name/company logo on our marketing material and website.

- I give my permission for my [name/company logo] to be included
- Alternatively, please indicate if you would prefer to donate anonymously

Engagement

Our vision is to create a community of supporters that work together to tackle some of the most pressing issues in Australia. To assist this, SVA will arrange a number of opportunities for its supporters to engage and collaborate.

Please indicate your interest in participating in the following activities:

- SVA events providing access to sector experts for thought leadership and knowledge sharing
- Opportunities for you (and your family/colleagues) to engage directly with our work and build a deeper understanding of the issues impacting our communities
- Quarterly briefings with SVA executives to keep you apprised of the work you are supporting and its impact

Reporting

SVA is committed to using evidence to drive systemic change. We work to prove and improve our impact and share that learning.

Please indicate below if you would like to receive:

- Annual reporting on the impact of SVA's work
- Short news updates on the important announcements relating to SVA's work
- SVA's digital publications, which capture lessons learnt from across our organisation

Pro Bono and In-Kind Support

If you or your organisation is interested in providing pro bono or in-kind assistance, please indicate the areas of support below and we will be in touch to discuss your interest and availability:
